Members of the Missoula Community Theatre,

Congratulations on your 11th sensory-friendly performance.

The arts are a source of joy and inspiration, and should be as accessible as possible for folks to enjoy. By staging a sensory-friendly performance, you're increasing access to the performing arts for Montanans – young and old – who may otherwise not attend. You've used your talent, time, and energy to create this performance, and you should be very proud.

From directors, to cast members, to the backstage hands, congratulations on offering another show accessible to the entire community of Missoula. I wish you a wonderful evening and successful performance.

Sincerely,
